CLASS HISTORY OF 1956

FRESHMEN

Let us turn back the clock to remind us of just what the Seniors of '56 have accomplished throughout their high school years. In September, '52, thirty Freshmen were started on a high school career with Sister Rosalia as homeroom teacher. Agnes Diller was elected President, Jerry Maloan was Vice-President, Dick Jeck was chosen to take minutes, and Bob Morrison, our class dues. New additions to our eighth-grade graduating class were: Dorothy Leavitt, Kay Motley, Mel Wachter, Mary Ellen Hribar, Margaret Meyer, Bob Morrison, and Pat Peak. We lost Bob McAlpine, Dorothy Leavitt, and Earl Vandry in the mid-term shuffle.

Maloan, Buset, Lyons, Amershek, Peak, and Patterson were gridiron men as Freshmen. Barbara Monsour began her career as cheerleader. Amershek was our sole basketeer. Sharon Thomas and Dick Jeck were our Marian candidates. Socially, we held a Freshmen-Sophomore box supper and dance. In May of '53, we very gladly assumed the title of sophisticated...

SOPHOMORES

September '53 found us minus Diller and Morrison, but plus Harriet Bouser, George Lasley, and Gene Pittman. Class officers were: Dick Jeck, President; Tom Patterson, Vice-President; Mel Wachter, Secretary; Dick Shaw, Treasurer. Monsour was again cheerleader. Connie Zucca was attendant to the football queen.

On the football squad were: Lyons, Shaw, Iori, Buset, Amershek, Patterson, Peak, and Maloan. On the hardwoods were: Maloan, Amershek, Lyons, Iori, Buset, Shaw, and Jeck.

At the semester, Pittman and Bouser moved, but Diller returned. Amershek and Hribar represented us in the Marian contest. Our class boasted all the band majorettes: Esch, Casterman, Diller, and Zucca. Smardo and Monsour were May Crowning attendants. It was this year, too, that our boys edited the "Class o'56 Paper." Frankenstein sparked our Hallowe'en dance. Time flew and soon we were...

JUNIORS

We entered room eleven to find Sister Luke again with us as homeroom teacher. This year we lost Kay Motley, but added Carol Kastler and Pat Stahl. Third year leaders were: Carol Kastler, Prexy; Patterson, Veep; Smardo, Secretary; Shaw, again in charge of the money.

Our contributions to the MBL Championship team were: Buset, Jeck, Peak, Smardo, Iori, Shaw, Amershek, Patterson, Lyons, Dixon, and Maloan. Zucca was again attendant and Monsour cheerleader. Diller became Drum Major, and Casterman, Esch, Ferns, Wachter, and Zucca led the band lines. On the basketball roster were: Maloan, Amershek, Buset, Jeck, and Shaw.

Diller was elected Sodality Vice-Prefect, and Monsour appointed Junior Red Cross President. Monsour represented St. Mary's in the Sodality Apologetics contest. Kastler and Patterson were our Marian candidates for King and Queen. Shaw and Meyer were our May crowning attendants. Agnes Diller was our representative at Girls' State, while Shaw, Patterson, Lyons, and Jeck went to Boys' State.

We sponsored the Christmas dance, the mock coronation, and the valentine dance, and finally the Junior-Senior Banquet--"A Cruise to Hawaii." Time was running out and at last we became...

SENIORS

For our final year we had Sister Paula as sponsor. Mark Lyons presided, gavel in hand, with Smardo ready to take over. Jeck hounded us for dues and Sharon Thomas did secretarial work. Our class decreased with the loss of Julie Casterman. In football under Lon Farrell were: Buset, Peak, Maloan, Amershek, Jeck, Smardo, Shaw, Patterson, Cronister, Iori, Lyons, and Lasley. Amershek and Maloan were co-captains and Connie Zucca was football Queen. Monsour was cheerleader for the fourth consecutive year. The majorettes continued with Diller as drum major.

Maloan, Amershek, Jeck, and Buset were our representatives on the court. The Marianette was edited by Carol Kastler, while the Marian was co-edited by Connie Zucca and Dick Shaw. Prefect of the Sodality was Margaret Meyer, while Barbara Monsour served on the Council Advisory Board. Senior Future Nurses were: Zucca, Kastler, Esch, Wachter, and Diller. December saw Carol Kastler as "Miss Merry Christmas." Thespian officers were Shaw, Zucca, Kastler, and Diller. May Queen was Carol Kastler with senior attendants: Meyer, Iori, and Smardo.

At the end of a busy, happy year came our senior trip. It was a memorable experience and probably the last week our class will ever spend together. For, after our return, we found ourselves at class night and finally, through high school. We can close our history with a single statement: We graduated May 27, 1956.

At last we have achieved our goal through work, prayer, and joy. To Father Stremel and all our faculty, we say sincerely: "Thanks for everything, and particularly for the spiritual inspiration which will be for us a priceless heritage in future years."

And with the closing of this book, we join the ranks of

NAME	NICKNAME	MOTTO
Dick Shaw	Moses	It seems as though I can't be good, but everyone seems to think I should.
Pat Peak	Daddy-O	Lessons will be the death of me.
Jerry Maloan	Moon	A young boy who blushes is better than one who turns pale.
Tom Amershek	Tommy	I like work; it fascinates me. I could sit and watch it for hours.
Dick Jeck	Jekyll	Things will come to those who wait, so why all the rush.
George Lasley	Lash	I never knew him out of patience.
Jim Iori	Riley	He's a marvel when awake, but hard to awaken.
George Dixon	Brannaman	I don't like noise unless I can make it myself.
Henry Buset	Hawk	All great men die young; I'm feeling badly.
Tommy Patterson	Tom	Not afraid of work, just not in sympathy with it.
Francis Cronister	Frank	If you haven't met him, it's your sorrow.
Mark Lyons	Markie	Dignum est optima in vita exspectare.
Jean Esch	Jeanie	Always laughing, never sad; sometimes good, never bad.
Connie Zucca	Coach	Happy go lucky, carefree and gay, she's the sunshine of each new day.
Barbara Wilson	Willie	She was born to giggle and giggle she must.
Mary Ellen Hribar	Spiff	Giddy and gay in a carefree way.
Patricia Stahl	Pat	The longer you know her, the better you like her.
Judith Alaman	Judy	Either I'll find a way or I'll make one.
Rose Blanken	Rosie	Full of life and always smiling.
Francis Smardo	Smurdley	All things change.
Carol Kastler	Bitesize	Small in stature, large of heart; always willing to do her part.
Agnes Diller	Snookie	What she seems to be, she really is.
Margaret Meyer	Pat	It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.
Mel Marie Wachter	Mel	When she smiles, there's mischief in her eyes.
Barbara Monsour	Babs	She's happy here, she's happy there; she spreads her gladness everywhere.
Peggy Yoakam	Peg	Not too quiet to be boring, not too loud to be annoying.
JoAnn Ferns	Shortcake	Sweet and neat, in all--a girl complete.
Sharon Thomas	Shortstuff	Gentle and neat, dainty and sweet; a lady indeed from her head to her feet.
